

Thursday, November 17, 2022

Prague Summer Nights Announces Inaugural Arts Administration Fellowship

Dates: March 13th to July 17th, 2023 (start date is flexible)

Prague Summer Nights is seeking a talented Arts Administration student or young professional to work on its Alexandria Summer Nights and Prague Summer Nights Program.

This fellowship offers the opportunity to work and collaborate with some of Europe's most historic venues, manage fully-staged opera productions, symphonic performances, chamber music concerts, an opera scenes program and even a cabaret concert.

In Alexandria, The Arts Administration Fellow will take the lead producing and managing a fully staged production of "Die Zauberflöte" with performances at the Rectory on Princess St. Secret Garden, The Castleton Festival, and the George Washington Masonic National Memorial.

For more information on the summer programs and other internships* in Alexandria and Prague, please visit praguesummernights.com.

Locations:

March 13th to May 30th, Remote Work (5-8 hours per week TBD)

May 30th to June 14th, Alexandria, VA

June 14th to July 17th, Czech Republic

Includes:

Single accomodation @ The Rectory on Princess St. in Alexandria, Virginia

Double accomodation in Tábor and Prague

Round trip airfare from Washington D.C to Prague

$500 meal stipend

To Apply: Please email resume and cover letter to derek@classicalmovements.com, subject line FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION

*In addition to the fellowship position, Prague Summer Nights is also offering 3 standard internships in Vocal Operations, Production, and Orchestra Operations.